All About Civil Services Examination

For the Fresher

Krishna Pradeep

Chairman,
21st Century Educational Society

Cracking IAS makes a person an overnight celebrity and a hero. He or she becomes an iconic personality for the millions of youth once he cracks IAS. However, people are not only obsessed about civil services but they are also having too many myths about civil service exam.

Any one can crack IAS. But cracking it in the first attempt at the age of 22 years should be the criterion, so that one can have more than 38 years of service in the career. It helps one to reach the top most post including the cabinet secretary. Here we try to answer some Frequently asked questions regarding the Civil Service preparation.

Krishna Pradeep's 21st Century IAS founded by Krishna Pradeep in 2003. Starting from the scratch, today we have produced over 3000 candidates to serve the national. Our alumni is serving in the state, Central and all india services.

Our R&D team is continuously innovating methods & techniques to empower the aspirants to "Crack IAS in the first Attempt".

To Further build this capacity among the candidates from 2017. We have also ventured 5 years Integrated IAS with intermediate and Degree and 3 Years Integrated IAS with Degree.

We are also empanelled with AP Kapu Corporation.

What is Civil Service Exam?

It is an elite exam in the country to select the candidates for the Executive posts. It is conducted by the Union Public Service Commission. Civil servant in India is not a specialist but a generalist. Civil servant is a public servant who need to have an over all idea of the historical, social, economic, political, geophysical, environmental, scientific, technological and cultural dimension of the society to resolve the challenges faced in the day to day life of the citizen. The civil service exam is designed to test the candidates ability to deal with these issues. The exam is held in a three phases.

The 3 Phases in UPSC Civil Services Exam are

PRELIMINARY EXAM - 1

(Objective type written Test with multiple choice Questions)

MAINS EXAM - 2

(Descriptive type written Test with scholastic type of questions)

PERSONALITY TEST - 3

(Interview / viva)

1.Prelims Exam Pattern

General points to be remembered in each paper:

1. Objective exam
2. Multiple choice questions
3. Negative marking for each incorrect answer (33% or 1/3rd or 0.66 of the allotted marks for the questions)

There will be a cut off mark to qualify for the next level i.e. mains. That will be determined according to the number of posts, number of candidates who wrote the exam, and the level of difficulty of the question paper. It is considered only based on the General studies paper but not CSAT because the GS Paper II (CSAT) is of qualifying in nature and candidates should score a minimum of 33 percent in this paper to qualify to the next stage of the exam i.e. Civil Services Mains. Even this paper has negative marking for incorrect answers i.e. 1/3rd of the allotted marks of that question.

2.	Civil Service Aptitude Test	80	2.5	200	2 Hrs.

The marks scored by the candidates in the preliminary examination are not counted for the final score.

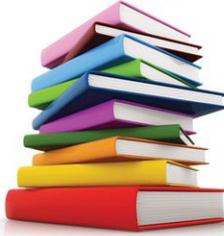

2.Mains Exam Pattern is as follows:

The second stage of the Civil Services Exam for IAS is called as the Main Exam, which is a written examination and comprises of 9 papers. The 9 papers are as follows—

- Paper-A (Indian Language)

- Paper –B (English)

These are qualifying in nature, while the other papers like Essay, General Studies Paper I, II, III, and IV, and Optional Paper I and II are considered for the final ranking.

What are the Subjects?

How to Select Optional?

Paper 6 and 7 of the mains exam are the paper 1 and 2 of an optional. Here we discuss, how to chose optional subject that plays a critical role in cracking civils.

There are two ways to select an optional

- Selecting a domain subject: A subject that the candidate has studied in his / her graduation. This subject should not be chosen unless the candidates has thorough understanding of the subject.
- Selecting a popular optional: A subject becomes popular among the candidates because it has the following advantages –
 - i. limited syllabus
 - ii. compatibility with the General Studies
 - iii. Wide availability of coaching and material
 - iv. High scoring

The following are the popular optional subjects:

- a. Public Administration
- b. Sociology
- c. Telugu Literature
- d. Geography
- e. Anthropology

What should be the score :

Prelims scores generally will be between 90 to 115 for 200 marks.

Note: CSAT is only a qualifying paper. Only the marks in the GS is taken into consideration. In mains, generally any scores between 38% or above can ensure to crack civil service exam. If you look at the marks of the candidates who made it to the top, it will not be more than 55% to 60%. It indicates two things –

- a. UPSC is seeking only average intellectuals but not extra ordinary intellectuals.
- b. The examination pattern is tough to score beyond 60%.

Medium of language:

The candidates can select medium of writing the UPSC Civil Services IAS Mains Exam in English or the Indian Languages as per languages listed in the 8th Schedule of the Indian Constitution. The final ranking of the candidates' is on the basis of the marks obtained by them in the Main Examination and Personality Test/Interview Round. Generally the candidates from AP and Telangana are inclined to write the exam in Telugu medium.

C. Personality Test

Candidates who clear the Civil Services Main Exam with the set cutoff marks will qualify for the final stage of the exam i.e., the Personality Test or Interview round with the UPSC Board Members. It is a face to face interaction with the board members. In this round the board assesses the personality traits of the candidates and questions will be asked on their hobbies, current affairs, education, job, situation questions and etc. The candidates who writes the exam in Telugu medium can also take the interview in the Telugu medium.

Some of the Important Events to remember:

Months	Event
February	Notification
June	Preliminary exam
October	Mains exam
April / May of the following year	Personality test
May / June	Results announcement
August	Training

2. "When" of Civil Service Exam?

It covers the following aspects – When to start?

Generally candidates starts their preparation after the completion of their graduation. It takes atleast one year to complete the basic preparation. If you give the first attempt after this, it takes another year to complete the attempt, because the cycle of examination is one year. If at any level (preliminary, mains, or personality test) the candidate fails, he has to take a second attempt right from the beginning. It means, another full year to complete the cycle.

Therefore if the candidate starts preparing for the exam before the completion of the graduation, he or she can save the number of years and there by extending the service period. Suppose if the candidate is crack civil service at the age of 22 (first attempt immediately after the graduation), he can have more than 38 years of service with which the candidate can even reach the level of cabinet secretary i.e. the highest civil service post in the country.

Usually most of the people decides become IAS / IPS at the school level before 10th class or at the +2 level. Some others decides during the graduation. Hence once you decide to chose civil service as a career, you should start preparation immediately with some basics.

Suppose if you decided before 10th standard:

Start reading some news paper. Have a world map, India map, and state map pasted or hanged on your bed room walls. Hang some photos of iconic civil servants in the country who are inspiring. Read some successful stories of the recent civil service aspirants. On completion of the 10th class, some seriousness should be inculcated in the preparation.

Decision after 10th Standard:

If you decided to start preparing for the civil service after 10th, chose some college that can offer Intermediate with civil service foundation. The college should have first hand experience in civil service coaching and it should provide intermediate only for the qualifying purpose. If such institution is not accessible, your group in the intermediate should be either History, Economics, Civics (HEC) or Commerce, Economics, Civics (CEC); or Maths, Economics, Commerce (MEC).

Such groups will have compatibility with your preparation. MPC or BiPC are not compatible for the preparation. The core subject in the civil service is more of social sciences rather than specific sciences. At this point of time you should start reading the NCERT books from 6th to 12th class including history, economics, psychology, sociology, geography, civics, environmental issues, basic general sciences etc. Divide these subjects equivalently for the 11th and 12th classes to be finished by the end of the 12th standard.

Decision After Intermediate:

If you decided to start preparing for the civil service after +2, chose some college that can offer Degree with civil service foundation. The college should have first hand experience in civil service coaching and it should provide graduation only for the eligibility purpose. If such institution is not accessible, chose BA with Political science, Public administration, sociology, economics, history, geography as the subjects.

At this level, you can complete some core subject in each of the 3years of graduation. The following table indicates what subjects can be completed in each year

SYLLABUS CLASSIFICATION

Year of degree	Semester 1	Semester 2
First Year	1. Ancient Indian History 2. Indian Polity Up to part 4 3. Physical Geography	1. Medieval Indian History 2. Indian Polity part 5 & 6 3. World geography
Second Year	1. Modern India 2. Indian Polity Part 7 to 12 3. Indian Geography	1. National movement 2. Indian Polity 13 to 22 3. Environmental issues
Third Year	1. World History 2. Indian Economy (first 5 chapters of mains syllabus) 3. Ethics Basics	1. Indian Culture 2. Indian Economy (Last 5 chapters of mains syllabus) 3. Governance

Decision During Graduation:

At this point of time you should start reading the NCERT books from 6th to 12th class including history, economics, psychology, sociology, geography, civics, environmental issues, basic general sciences etc. Divide these subjects equivalently for the 11th and 12th classes to be finished by the end of the 12th standard.

Immediately after the graduation, join some coaching institute for the guidance. Here it takes at least 2 years to give one full attempt.

The possibility of getting into the service depends on when you have decided to prepare for the exam. The more delay you do, the more delay there will be to get into the service and consequently, you shorten your career. Decide early.

2. When does the UPSC issues the notification?

Usually the dates of notification and examination are announced by the UPSC one year in advance. Generally, notification will be announced in February every year. For instance, the calendar for the 2018 was announced on 5-6-17. You can see the advertisement on

3. When will be the exam?

The Preliminary exam will be held in June.

The date of Preliminary exam for the 2018 will be on 03 – 06 – 2018.

Mains exam will be held between October 1st 2018 to October 5th 2018.

4. When will be the Interview?

Usually it takes 3 to four months to start the interviews or Personality test. The UPSC will call candidates in a 1:3 or 1: 2.5 ratio for the personality test. The personality test of each candidate will be generally takes place for 20 minutes to 40 minutes. The interviews will be completed in a span of 30 to 40 days.

5. When will be the Results?

As soon as the interviews are completed, the UPSC releases results. Usually the date of results will precede the preliminary exam of the following year, so that those who could not clear the exam, can take the exam again.

6. When will be the Training?

On announcing the results, two to three months time will be there before the commencement of foundation training. Generally in the last week of August, candidates will be called for the Foundation Training at the Lal Bahadur Shastri National Academy of Administration, Mussouri.

7. When will be the Postings?

After the foundation training of 4 months which is common for all the candidates what ever the service they are selected, the candidates will have to leave for their respective professional training institutes. Example: IAS will have the Professional training in LBSNAA, Missouri only. IPS – Sardar Vallabai Patel National Police Academy, Hyderabad. On the completion of their respective trainings they are given postings.

"Where" of civil service exam?

1. Where to start?

2. Where is the Coaching available?

There are hundreds of coaching institutions in the country for the civil service coaching. Apart from New Delhi, there are coaching institutions in the state capitals also. In the South India, Hyderabad, Bangalore, Chennai and Trivendrum have the best coaching institutes. In fact most eminent coaching centres in Delhi are established by the South India. Eminent faculty in Delhi are also from Hyderabad and Chennai.

Hyderabad is considered to be the second best place in India for the civil service coaching. Those who go to Delhi from South generally complain that, there is nothing unique in Delhi. More over the climate is also not suitable to the people from AP and Telangana.

Institutes in Hyderabad not only provides best training but also the cost of training is very less when compared to elsewhere. More over the maintenance costs in Hyderabad like food and hostel or paying guest accommodation are very cheaper here.

Most eminent institutions in Hyderabad that provides coaching are – Krishna pradeep's 21st Century IAS in Ahsok Nagar and KPHB (Two Branches); RC Reddy IAS Study Circle, Ashok nagar, Brain Tree, Himayath Nagar, Telangana Study Circle, Banjara Hills, Vizag, Vijayawada, Rajahmundry etc.

The candidate has to consider the following aspects in selecting the training institutes

- a. Regularity of the classes
- b. Timely completion of the syllabus
- c. Weekend tests
- d. Special Classes on current affairs
- e. Grand tests and All India Mock Tests.
- f. Evaluation and feed back on the tests.
- g. Previous results
- h. Activities like group discussions, quiz programs, extempore etc.
- i. Best coaching for the optional which is a deciding factor in your success

3. Where is the UPSC Located ?

Why Civil Service?

In fact, this question should be raised first.

Here we discuss "Why" any one has to prepare for the civil service exam?

The 4Ps:

There are 4Ps that makes any one to think about the civil service exam.

The 4 Ps are :

1. Parents
2. Prestige
3. Power
4. Perks

Parents: Parents generally dream of making their children civil servants. They motivate them right from child hood. The children owns parents' dreams as their dreams. They start dreaming about becoming a district collector. This persistent dreaming do not let them sleep.

Prestige: When a person cracks civil service, he is over night celebrity. The prestige associated with IAS is so commendable that, once a person cracks IAS, even the staunch enemies of his family will start calling him to congratulate. Civil service has gained such a prestigious status right from the British Colonial rule.

Power: The candidates who gets into Civil Service will be appointed in the leadership positions. They enjoy an enormous power. They derive this power from knowledge, skills and persistent practice. They have the policy power i.e. power to influence the policies, stopping power i.e. the power to stop any thing and doing power i.e. the power to do any thing. The power of a civil servant comes clothed in clouds, hidden mist i.e. an invisible power. To enjoy this power, a person must be a civil servant.

Perks: The perks and benefits associated with the civil service are innumerable. The basic minimum basic salary is 56,100/- for any beginner. This is apart from other perks and benefits. By the time a civil servant reaches the top most level i.e. cabinet secretary, his salary is 2,50,000/- (as recommended by the 7th pay commission). Civil service is the only area of career where there is no effect of recession. The job is constitutionally protected (under article 310 and 311 of the Indian constitution)

Beyond 4Ps: Change:

The 4Ps discussed above are only external motivators to drive a person for the civil service preparation. The one internal motivator for civils preparation is "Change".

When a person cracks civil service two aspects of "change" are possible

1. Changing one self - with reference to ones own attitude towards life, and society.
2. Changing the society – When you crack IAS, you will have the ability to change the system characterized by conventionalism formalism.

One can crack civil service with a burning desire if he / she has a clarity about why he wanted to become an officer. For this purpose, the life goal should be set before starting the preparation for civil service. For instance, the Alumni from Krishna Pradeep's 21st Century IAS have the following idea of what they want to change

1. The 2016 All India 3rd Ranker Gopala Krishna Ronanki, says he wanted to make the people educated
 2. The 2007 IPS , DC Ravi, Karnataka cadre, contributing to make the children educated where ever he is posted
 3. Mr. Ake Ravi Krishna, SP Kurnool district of Andhra Pradesh, adopts a village wherever he is working. Currently he adopted a village in Kurnool – Kaptralla. When he was SP in Guntur district of Andhra Pradesh he introduced a program called "chelleli kosam" (For the sister) in which awareness on anti ragging was promoted by symbolically distributing pepper powder packets. He also promotes eye donation campaign and yoga campaign. He has fans where ever he works, as a super star.
 4. The 2007 batch IAS officer Alex Paul Menon, played a Bhagiratha role to ensure drinking water to the people of a tribal district in Chattisgarh where he was a district collector.
- There are innumerable examples of such officers who have made a change with their extra ordinary functioning.
- If you want to change the society, have a clarity about what change that you want to bring. It can be any field- education, health, poverty, human resource development, child labor, empowering the weaker sections etc. Clearly established goal makes you to make it to final list.
